- (t) Physical standard in respect of Scheduled Tribe candidates will be relaxable upto 5 Cms in height and 4 Cms each in respect of chest without and with expansion.

Simla-171002, the 20th November, 1978

No. Fts. (A)-3-1/77.—In supersession of this Department Notification of even number, dated 5-4-1978 and in exercise of powers conferred under sections 41 and 42 of the Indian Forest Act, 1927 (XVI of 1927) and in supersession of all the rules on the subject, the Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the movement of Forest produce by land routes into from and within the territorial limits of the Himachal Pradesh:—

1. Short title and extent.—These rules shall be called the Himachal Pradesh Forest Produce Transit (Land Routes) Rules, 1978.

2. These rules shall apply to the whole of the State of Himachal Pradesh.

3. These rules shall come into force forthwith provided that any action already taken or continuing under the provisions of rules already in force shall be deemed to have been taken and continued under the provisions of these rules.

4. Interpretation clause.—Under these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) 'Act' means the Indian Forest Act XVI of 1927;

- (ii) 'Section' means a section of the said Act;
- (iii) 'Division' means an executive forest management unit of forests constituted for the purpose of administration of forests and notified as such by the Government;
- (iv) 'Divisional Forest Officer' means an Officer holding the charge of the concerned division;
- (v) 'Conservator of Forests' means an Officer holding the charge of the concerned Forest Circle;
- (vi) 'Check Post' means any post so specified under the provisions of these rules for checking and regulating the movement of forest produce;
- (vii) Other expressions used in these rules shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Indian Forest Act.

5. Registration and property mark(s) and its use.—No person shall transport or cause to be transported any forest produce that does not bear the imprint of the registered mark.

6. All persons wishing to transport forest produce by land routes shall register at the office of the Divisional Forest Officer the mark, or marks which indicate their proprietary rights in such forest produce provided that no mark is required to be imprinted on any timber which is being transported within the concerned revenue estate only by a right-holder in consequence of a grant to that effect in his favour.

7. No person shall be allowed to register any mark(s) already registered in favour of other persons or the Government Departments. The Divisional Forest Officer may refuse registration on any mark(s) which according to him closely resemble(s) the mark(s) used by the Government Department or has/have been registered in favour of some other person(s).

8. Issue of Certificate of Registration.—A certificate showing the fascimile of the mark, the date of registration, the period for which it is valid and acknowledging the payment of fees shall be issued to every person registering his mark(s).

9. Validity period of Registration Certificate.—Every certificate of registration shall be valid for three years commencing from the 1st of January of the year of registration. The registration fee in respect of each mark shall be Rs. 5 and if the number of marks to be registered in favour of one person exceeds three, the fee shall be Rs. 10 for each such mark. However no fee is payable by any Government Department.

10. Issue of pass for Export or Transport of forest produce.—No pass shall be issued for any unmarked timber or for such timber as bears the marks not registered as hereinafter provided—

- (i) The Divisional Forest Officer may refuse to issue a pass for export or transport if he has reasons to believe or for any other valid reasons that the forest produce has not been legally obtained by the applicant. However, the refusal to issue a pass shall be made in the shape of self-speaking written order.
- (ii) The person who has been refused the issue of pass may within fifteen days of the date of refusal prefer an appeal to the Conservator of Forests incharge of the area concerned and his orders on appeal shall be final.

11. Prohibition on transport of forest produce.—(1) No person shall transport or cause to be transported any forest produce by land routes, without obtaining pass (Annexure 'A') from the concerned Divisional Forest Officer or any other officer so authorised.

(2) No person shall transport or cause to be transported any timber for conversion for sawing or for sale enroute.

(3) Transport routes and other conditions.—(a) The Authority issuing the pass shall prescribe a route by which along the forest produce may be transported for export outside Himachal Pradesh in such a manner that the forest produce crosses through one of the following barriers established by the Excise and Taxation Department

Sl. No.	Name of Barrier	District

29.	Totu	Simla
30.	Jogindernagar	Mandi:

Provided that such authority shall also prescribe the check post(s) where the forest produce shall be compulsorily checked enroute.

(b) In case the produce is not to be exported outside the territory of Himachal Pradesh, the authority issuing the pass shall prescribe the route by which alone the forest produce may be transported and shall also determine the check post(s) where it shall be compulsorily checked.

(4) The issuing authority shall also determine the other conditions subject to which the pass shall be issued and shall also determine the period for which the pass shall remain valid. However the validity of any pass shall under no circumstances exceed a period of six months including any extension(s) allowed. A fee of Rs. 5 shall be leviable for the issue of such a pass.

12. Issue of Challan(s).—The person in whose favour the pass has been issued or his authorised Agent shall issue a challan (Annexure B) to accompany the forest produce in case all the forest produce cannot be transported at the same time and the pass cannot accompany the forest produce. The Challan will be valid for a maximum of only 60 hours.

13. Setting up of check post(s).—The Divisional Forest Officer may with the permission of the Conservator of Forests notify the setting up of a check post at suitable point(s) along with the roads for purposes of check and examination of forest produce.

At every check post, registers (Annexure-C) to record the details of forest produce passing through the check post shall be maintained.

14. Production of pass challan for examination.—A Forest Officer or Police Officer may at any time require any person transporting forest produce to produce the pass/challan as issued for the transportation of such produce. No person is entitled to transport forest produce by virtue of a pass/challan which he does not himself hold but is or is stated to be in the hands of some other person.

15. Detention of forest produce and other articles etc.—In the event of the pass/challan not being produced, the Forest Officer or Police Officer may detain the forest produce, vehicles, camels, mules etc. by which it was being transported and cause the same not to move as long as may be reasonably necessary to examine the forest produce and/or till the valid pass/challan is produced.

16. Seizure of forest produce and other articles etc.—In the event of the pass/challan being not produced in reasonable time, the Forest Officer or Police Officer shall further effect seizure of forest produce and other measures of transport and other articles, in accordance with the law in force.

17. Exemption to right holders from obtaining of pass.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, a right-holder who has collected forest produce in exercise of his recorded rights may, without obtaining a pass transport such forest produce within the revenue estate in which it has been so collected.

18. Bar on booking of forest produce by rail.—No person shall offer any forest produce for export by rail on any railway station within Himachal Pradesh unless it is covered by a pass issued under these rules. Nor will the railway authorities accept any forest produce for transport by rail unless accompanied by a valid pass.

19. Bar on altering or defacing or obliterating of marks.—No person shall without the written permission of the Divisional Officer alter or deface or obliterate any mark placed on any forest produce while in transit.

20. Penalty etc. for breach of rules.—Any person who contravenes these rules shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to Rs. 500 or with both and the forest produce being transported may also be seized and dealt with under the provisions of the Indian Forest Act:

Provided that the penalties will be doubled in cases where the offence has been committed after sunset or before sun-rise, or after resistance to the lawful authority or where the offender has been previously convicted of like offence.
